The marvellous cure of Miss Lettie Huntley of Cortland, N. Y., has attracted widespread attention. She was night to death's door with hemorphages caused by ulcers in the stomach. Could est nothing. When the physicians said there was no hope, her mother urged her to try.

She reluctantly consented, and in a few days felt stronger, bloating subsided, appetite gradually returned, and in a month she could walk across the room. In six months she was as well as ever in her life, and has been in perfect health ever since. She says: "I know that HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and that alone, saved my life."

TOO MUCH CALLING.

Robert Makett, a young colored man, was in such an embarrassing situation. He ended his day's calling on Reeves street, where he induged in so much bad language that Policeman Cleveland deprived him of his liberty. Five dollars.

Robert Johnson was in the same predicament. He had been out during the afternoon, and when he went to 7th street and Pennsylvania avenue to get his shoes blacked he got in trouble. Policeman Hinkel took him in custody and Judge Rimball gave a similar greeting.
Mike Lanhady and William Flitzgeraid came next in line, but they had no excuse to offer.
They were in the toils vesterday and the judge excused them. Lanhady promised to keep sober for a week and Fitzgeraid promised to leave the city before noon. Both men broke their promises and for that reason they were ashamed to offer another excuse.

"I thought yesterday," said the judge, "that you would not keep sober for a week," talking to Lanhady.
